Staniel Cay, BAHAMAS - The wild pigs in Big Major are getting more attention! According to the Staniel Cay Yacht Club's Facebook page, "NBC's 'The Today Show' arrived today (January 29th, 2012) to film advance shots for the show to be aired on February 9th and 10th from The Bahamas. Sara Haines and the Today Show crew visited Staniel Cay and got some great shots of the pigs on Big Major (a brand new litter!) and Thunderball Grotto."

"The weather could not have been better for this ... 80s and sunny!

A big "thank you" goes out to the Today Show and the Bahamas Ministry of Tourism for putting this visit together and helping us show the world the beauty of the Exuma Cays."
